

Bylaws and Rules of Procedure
The City Council of the City of Finlayson
Adopted January 13, 2025

- I. AUTHORITY. City councils are authorized to adopt rules of procedure and provide for order at their meetings pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 412.191.
- II. PURPOSE. The purpose of this policy on city council meetings is to set the groundwork for orderly and respectful communications between and among council members, city staff, and citizens to promote the efficient working of the public's business at city council meetings.
- III. THE OPEN MEETING LAW. The Minnesota Open Meeting Law, Minn. Stat. ch. 13D, generally requires that all meetings of public bodies be open to the public.
 - a. This presumption of openness serves three basic purposes:
 - i. To prohibit actions from being taken at a secret meeting, where it is impossible for the interested public to become fully informed concerning decisions of public bodies, or to detect improper influences.
 - ii. To ensure the public's right to be informed.
 - iii. To afford the public an opportunity to present its views to the public body.
 - b. The city council views providing and encouraging citizen access to city meetings as one of its most important duties. As a result, all council and council committee meetings, including special and adjourned meetings, with the exception of closed meetings, as provided by Minn. Stat. ch. 13D, shall be open to the public.
 - c. In calculating the number of days for providing notice under the Minnesota Open Meeting Law, the first day that the notice is given is not counted, but the last day is counted. If the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, that day is omitted from the calculation and the following day is considered the last day (unless, it happens to be a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday).
 - d. In keeping with the intent of the Minnesota Open Meeting Law, city council members shall not use any form of electronic communications technology, such as text messaging or e-mail, to communicate with one another or third parties during a public meeting in a manner that is hidden or shielded from the public view.
 - e. Pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 13D.01, subd. 6, at least one copy of the written materials made available to council at or before the meeting shall also be made available for inspection by the public, excluding any non-public data, attorney-client privileged data, or materials related to agenda items of closed meetings.
- IV. QUORUM. A simple majority (3) of the council shall constitute a quorum for the valid transaction of any scheduled business to come before the council.
- V. COUNCIL MEETINGS.
 - a. Location. All meetings, including special, recessed, and continued meetings, shall be held in the city council chambers, unless otherwise designated, pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 13D.04, subd. 2.
 - b. Regular meetings. A schedule of regular meetings shall be kept on file with the city clerk.
 - c. Special meetings. A special meeting is a meeting that is held at a time or location different from that of a regular meeting. A special meeting may be called by the mayor or any two city council members by filing a request for the meeting at least three days before the meeting. Days shall be counted as provided in III-C. Notice to the public of special meetings must be given pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 13D.04, subd. 2.

- d. Emergency meetings. An emergency meeting may be called by the mayor or any two city council members. An emergency meeting is a special meeting called because of circumstances that, in the judgment of the public body, require immediate consideration by the public body. Posted or published notice of an emergency meeting is not required. However, the city will make a good faith effort to notify each news outlet that has filed a written request for notice. Notice must be given by telephone or any other method to notify members of the public body. The notice must include the subject of the meeting.
- e. Closed meetings. The Minnesota Open Meeting Law allows some meetings to be closed to the public for defined purposes. When a meeting is closed, the presiding officer at the council meeting will state the reason for closing the meeting on the record and cite the state statute that permits closure.
- f. Recessed or continued meetings. When a meeting is recessed or continued, the presiding officer shall state the time and place for the next meeting to occur pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 13D.04, subd 4. The time and place shall be noted in the minutes. If the time and place is stated and noted in the minutes, no additional notice of the meeting is required. However, if the time and place is not stated, the notice procedures for special meeting shall be required.
- g. Organizational meetings. The council will conduct its organizational meeting concurrent with the first regular council meeting in January of each year to:
 - i. Appoint an acting mayor pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 412.121.
 - ii. Select an official newspaper pursuant to Minn. Stat. § 412.831.
 - iii. Select an official depository for city funds. This must be done within 30 days of the start of the city's fiscal year pursuant to Minn. Stat. §§ 427.01-.02; 118A.02, subd 1; 427.09.
 - iv. Review council's bylaws and make any needed changes.
 - v. Assign committee duties to members.
 - vi. Approve official bonds that have been filed with the clerk.

VI. PRESIDING OFFICER. The mayor shall preside at all meetings of the city council.

- a. Role of the presiding officer. The presiding officer shall preserve order, enforce the City Council Rules of Order as adopted in VII, and determine, without debate, all questions of procedure and order, subject to the final decision of the council on appeal as provided in VI-D. The presiding officer shall determine which member has the right to speak and may move matters to a vote once the officer has determined that all members have spoken. The presiding officer may determine whether a motion or proposed amendment is in order and may call members to order.
- b. Adjourning meetings. If considered necessary, because of grave disorder, the presiding officer may adjourn or continue the meeting to another time or suspend the meeting for a specified time.
- c. Designation of a sergeant-at-arms. The presiding officer may request that local law enforcement designate a member to serve as a sergeant-at-arms at city council meetings. The sergeant-at-arms shall carry out all orders or instructions given by the presiding officer for the purpose of maintaining order and decorum at meetings.
- d. Motions and voting. The presiding officer may make motions, second motions, speak on any questions, participate in debate, and vote on any matter properly before the council.
- e. Absences of the presiding officer. In the absence of the mayor, the acting mayor shall preside. In the absence of both the mayor and the acting mayor, the city clerk/administrator shall call the meeting to order. The first order of business shall be to select a presiding officer for the meeting from the members present. The city clerk/administrator shall preside until the council members present choose a member to act as presiding officer.
- f. Appeals of rulings of the presiding officer. Any member of the council may appeal to the full council a ruling on order or procedure made by the presiding officer.
 - i. Procedure for appeals. An appeal is made by motion. No second is need for the motion. The member making the motion may speak once solely on the question involved, and the presiding officer may speak once solely to explain his or her ruling, but no other council member may participate in the discussion.

- ii. Once both the maker of the motion and the presiding officer have spoken, the matter must be voted upon by the council as a whole.
- iii. The appeal shall be sustained if it is approved by a majority of the members present, exclusive of the presiding officer.

- g. Temporary designation of a presiding officer. The presiding officer may choose to designate a temporary presiding officer before participating in debate on a given matter. In the alternative, the council may by majority vote designate a temporary presiding officer to preside over the debate on a given matter. The presiding officer shall resume presiding as soon as action on the matter is concluded.

VII. RULES OF ORDER. The proceedings of the city council shall be conducted in accordance with the Minnesota Mayors Association Rules of Order for City Councils.

VIII. DECORUM OF COUNCIL MEMBERS.

- a. Aspirational statement: All council members shall assist the presiding officer in preserving order and decorum and in providing for the efficient operation of the meeting.
- b. Aspirational statement: No council member shall engage in conduct which delays or interrupts the proceedings, or which hinders honest, respectful discussion and debate.
- c. Aspirational statement: City council meetings shall be conducted in a courteous manner that recognizes the validity of differing points of view and promotes the ideal of democratic discussion and debate free of insult, slander, and personal attacks and threats.
- d. To effectuate these aspirational goals, city council members shall conduct themselves at council meetings in a manner consistent with the following:
 - i. No council member shall engage in private conversation or pass private messages while in the chamber in a manner so as to interrupt the proceedings of the council.
 - ii. No council member shall leave his or her seat or make any noise of disturbance while a vote is being taken and until the result of the vote is announced.
 - iii. No council member shall use profane or obscene words or use language that threatens harm or violence toward another person during a council meeting.

XV. PUBLIC COMMENT AT COUNCIL MEETINGS AND AT PUBLIC HEARINGS

- a. Public participation and comment at council meetings. City council meetings are the forum for the city council to conduct the city's business. While city council meetings are open to the public pursuant to the Minnesota Open Meeting Law, they are not a forum for public expression. As such, members of the public are not allowed to participate in council discussion and debate without a specific invitation and/or formal recognition by the presiding officer. Members of the public shall not applaud, engage in conversation, or engage in other behavior through words or action that may disrupt the proceedings of council.
- b. Members of the public shall follow the direction of the presiding officer. Members of the public who do not follow the direction of the presiding officer will be warned that further disruptive conduct will result in removal from the meeting. After warning, if the conduct continues, the presiding officer may ask the member of the public to leave the meeting room. If the member of the public refuses to follow the direction of the presiding officer, the presiding officer may direct the sergeant-at-arms to remove the person through any lawful means. In emergency situations, or where conduct is an egregious threat to the safety of the public or the council, a warning is not necessary before the sergeant-at-arms is directed to remove the person.
- c. Public comment period. A limited forum for members of the public to speak with the council is provided on the agenda. Public comments during the public comment period are subject to these limitations:
 - i. Speakers must be recognized by the presiding officer before speaking and are limited to three minutes for comment.
 - ii. When multiple speakers appear to speak on the same topic, comments should not be repetitive. The presiding officer may request speakers to appoint a spokesperson.
 - iii. The presiding officer may place a time limit on the public comment period if necessary to allow for the conduct of city business. If there is not sufficient time at the meeting to hear all public comments, the comment period may be deferred to the next regular council meeting or at a continued meeting.
 - iv. Speakers must sign up prior to speaking and provide a name, address, and brief summary of the subject matter they wish to address. The signup sheet will be available at the start of the city council meeting.
 - v. Speakers must direct their remarks toward the presiding officer.
 - vi. Speakers shall not use obscene, profane or threatening language, nor conduct themselves in a threatening, loud, or boisterous manner that disrupts the conduct of the meeting or the security of the public.
 - vii. Speakers are required to follow the direction of the presiding officer.
 - viii. Speakers who do not follow the direction of the presiding officer will be warned that further disruptive conduct will result in removal from the meeting. After warning, if the conduct continues the presiding officer may ask the speaker to leave. If the speaker refuses to follow the direction of the presiding officer, the presiding officer may direct the sergeant-at-arms to remove the speaker through any lawful means. In emergency situations, or when conduct is an egregious threat to the safety of the public or the council, a warning is not necessary before the sergeant-at-arms is directed to remove the speaker.
 - ix. Council will generally not respond at the same meeting where an issue is initially raised by a member of the public. Matters raised for the first time by members of the public will generally be referred to staff for further research and possible report or action at a future council meeting.
- d. A summary of these rules for public comment may be provided in the council meeting room.

XVI. PUBLIC HEARINGS. Public hearings are sometimes required by law to allow the public to offer input on city council decisions. When public hearings are required by law, notice shall be provided as required by state statute. Public hearings shall be commenced at the time advertised in any notice required by law.

 - d. The presiding officer may continue the hearing, if necessary, following the procedures in V-F.
- XVII. PROCEDURE FOR RESOLUTION AND ORDINANCE ADOPTION. All resolutions and ordinances shall be in writing. Unless otherwise provided by law, all ordinances shall be adopted by resolution by a majority vote of council members present at the council meeting. Unless otherwise provided by law, ordinances do not require multiple readings, and may be adopted as presented at the first available meeting.
- XVIII. BOARD, COMMISSION, AND COMMITTEE ASSIGNMENTS. All assignments of council members to serve on city boards, commissions, and committees shall be by a majority vote of council members present at the meeting, unless otherwise provided by law.
- XIX. MAYORAL AND CITY PROCLAMATIONS. Except as otherwise provided by law, all mayoral and city proclamations recognizing events, persons, and official observances shall be adopted by a majority of council members present at the meeting where such proclamation is presented for adoption.
- XX. SEATING ASSIGNMENTS. Council members shall occupy the chairs assigned to them by the presiding officer, but two council members may exchange seats by joining in a formal request to the presiding officer.
- XXI. SUSPENSION OR AMENDMENT OF THESE RULES. Any or all of these rules may be temporarily suspended by a majority vote of the council members present at the meeting, except as otherwise required by Minnesota law. These rules shall not be repealed or amended except by a majority vote of the whole council after notice has been given at a preceding council meeting.
