

Ordinance No 10.14.96
City of Finlayson

Governing Body Compensation Ordinance

The City of Finlayson ordains:

Whereas:

there has been no salary adjustment for the Council members or the Mayor in over 20 years in the City of Finlayson.

a review was made of the compensation levels of other communities of similar size and location.

a review was made of the responsibilities and commitment of these offices.

Therefore:

the City Council of Finlayson determines that a increase of $10.00 per month for regular meetings of Council members and the Mayor is appropriate. Council members will receive $30.00 per month and Mayor will receive $45.00 per month. Extra or special meetings will remain at $25.00 per meeting as in the past.

Effective:

January 1, 1997.

LeRoy Thurn, Mayor

Jennette Alleman, City Clerk

Council Compensation

The MBC permits the council to establish their compensation at § 30.08, but this is done by separate ordinance. Salary ordinances need not be codified, since they are changed periodically. Therefore, this ordinance should not be contained in TITLE XVII but it should be retained in the records of the city.
